EASTERN MONTANA STUDENTS SELECTED AS UM ADVOCATES

MISSOULA --

Five Eastern Montana students have been selected to join The University of Montana Advocates.

The 80 student leaders who comprise the Advocates assist the University with UM Days, orientation, phonathons, recruiting, registration and other campus events and activities. Advocates also serve as campus hosts for Homecoming, alumni relations and UM Foundation events.

New Advocates include: pre-pharmacy sophomore Nancy Colson, a 1992 graduate of Sidney High School and the daughter of John Colson Jr. and Jackie Steinbeisser; freshman political science major Valley Peters, a 1993 graduate of Harlowton High School and the daughter of Julie Voss and Clayton Peters; sophomore economics major Jeffrey Ruff, a 1992 graduate of Billings West High School and the son of Bill and Carol Ruff; pre-med freshman Josh Sticka, a 1993 graduate of Billings Senior High School and the son of Jim and Robin Sticka; and freshman business/communications major Jody Svendsen, a 1993 graduate of Billings Skyview High School and the daughter of Jack and Judy Svendsen.
